

Pet Food Express opens at Hamilton

Pet Food Express, a San Leandro-based health-oriented pet food store, will open its 34th store at the Hamilton Marketplace in Novato Wednesday.

Owner Michael Levy, a Mill Valley resident, said the demand for healthy pet foods has grown since recalls of several products in 2007.

Pet Food Express was started in 1986 with a store in San Francisco. It also has stores at 912 Diablo Ave. in Novato and at 280 Northgate One in Terra Linda.

Grand-opening events include free pet washes Saturday and Sunday, and pet adoptions.
